President's Message

Hello Everyone:

It's hard to believe that another year is almost gone. We have seen so many changes in our world recently, it's sometimes hard to keep up. I was just reading from an old book that I have (copyright 1932) named Complete Cheerful Cherub. This little verse was in it. It's never wise to wait too soon. Misfortunes always end— The day that brought my deepest woe. Brought too my truest friend. That little verse makes sense. Let's look for the rainbow!

And a big Thank-You to all our "Friends". You make things happen!

I hope you will be able to make our next meeting. At our last meeting we had Chief Master Sergeant John Trimble speak to us regarding his years on Air Force One and his new book "Around the World in 25 Years: A Memoir. It was fascinating. We hope to have some more interesting speakers next year!

I hope you have a blessed Christmas, Happy Hanukkah, Happy Holidays and may the New Year bring you health, happiness and love. Before I close, please say a prayer for all our military men and women who are out there protecting our country. May God watch over them.

God bless you all. As always, Irene

Volunteers Make a Difference

You give but little when you give of your possessions. It is when you give of yourself that you truly give.

Kahlil Gibran

In sincere appreciation to all our bookstore volunteers with special recognition for their time and commitment to making our bookstore so successful. You make a positive difference. An especially important tribute to Marilyn Muldoon, Marion Prior, and Pat Riemer, who have contributed countless hours and support for many years as volunteers. We will miss them all as they "retire" from the bookstore. We are very grateful for their dedication. Thank you! Thank you!

The Snow Angel by Glenn Beck

Reviewed by Rae Correira

This is a story of family resilience, and knowing that the ones you love are never too far away. Two siblings want new toys and a vacation, but their parents are struggling financially and cannot give them what they want. Their grandmother tells them a story about a young girl whose family also experiences hard times. Before leaving to find work., the father makes a snow angel, telling his little girl that no matter where he is, there will always be an angel looking out for her and her mother. This helps the brother and sister realize the true meaning of family.

IMPORTANT BY-LAWS REVISION

At the November meeting, a motion was made, seconded, and carried to change our fiscal year from March 31st to June 30th. This will align our fiscal year with that of the county library system. A second motion was made, seconded, and carried that we change our quorum requirements for any meeting of our general membership to be defined as 10% of members in good standing, including 3 elected officers.

Per our present by-laws, we are notifying everyone via this newsletter and we will be voting on these measures at our January 9, 2012 meeting. Please plan on attending!
